GARY, Elbert Henry, 71 Broadway, New York; res. Jericho, L. I., N. Y.

Chairman U. S. Steel Corpn.: b. Wheaton, Ill., Oct. 8, 1846; s. Erastus and Susan A. (Vallette) Gary; descendant of Arthur Gary, who came to America in 1635; immediate forebears, with related family of Wheaton owned the land upon which the city of Wheaton, Ill., has been built; educated in public schools, Wheaton, Ill., Coll. and Univ. of Chicago; LL. B. Univ. of Chicago, 1867 (LL. D., McKendree Coll., 1906), Lafayette Coll., 1915, Lincoln Memorial Univ., 1919, Trinity Coll., 1919, Syracuse Univ., 1921, Northwestern Univ., 1922; Sc. D. Univ. of Pittsburgh, 1915; m. 1st, June 23, 1869 Julia E. Graves; 2nd, Emma Townsend; children: Mrs. Gertrude Gary Sutcliffe and Mrs. Bertha Gary Campbell. Admitted to Ill. Bar, Oct. 1867; Bar of Supreme Court of U. S., 1882. Pres. of the Town of Wheaton three terms and after its incorporation as a city was its first mayor for two terms; county judge of DuPage County two terms. While Judge of County Court of DuPage Co., (adjoining county to Cook County in which Chicago is located) was very largely occupied in presiding in cases in the Cook County Court. Under Ill. law at that time each county could have but one county judge, but in case of more business than the judge could handle the county Board could employ the judge of any other Ill. county to aid in clearing the calendars, and this privilege the Board exercised by calling Judge Gary, who thus became judge in many of the most important cases tried in the Cook County Court, at Chicago. Engaged in general practice of law in Chicago 25 years (president Chicago Bar Assn., 1893-94). Had active part in the consolidation and reorganization of various industries; notably of several wire mills into the Consolidation Steel & Wire Co., 1892, and of several plants in and around Chicago and Joliet, Ill., under the name of Illinois Steel Co., acquiring an interest in both corporations; enlarged the Consolidated Steel and Wire Co. by adding many other mills and reorganized it 1896 as the American Steel and Wire Co. Connected with organization in 1898 of the Federal Steel Co., in which the Illinois Steel Co. and many other mills were united and retired from law practice to become its president. Prominently identified with the organization of the U. S. Steel Corpn. of which has from the first been chmn. of the Board of Directors and chairman of the Finance Committee. Has been pres. of the American Iron and Steel Institute since its organization in 1919. Now chmn. and chief exec. officer of the U. S. Steel Corpn., and its subsidiary dir. of the Home Insurance Co., and of the First National Bank of New York. When Germany invaded Belgium and France in 1914, was in Paris and took a leading executive part in conjunction with Hon. Myron T. Herrick, American ambassador in organizing the efforts successfully put forth in aid of American visitors and tourists, anxious to get home, who were stranded in Paris and other French places by the paralysis of transportation facilities. When U. S. entered the war, became chairman of the Committee on Steel and Steel Products of the Council of National Defense (at request of Hon. Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War and Hon. Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy). This committee mobilized the iron and steel industry, consisting of the leading producers of iron and steel. The committee supplied the demands of the U. S. for iron and steel needed for war purposes, and as far as possible, those of its associates in the war. Mem. of the American, New York and Illinois Bar Assns., American Iron and Steel Inst., American Inst. of Mining & Metallurgical Engineers, Safety Inst. of America, etc. Trus.
